CHARACTERISTICS:	The dryness goes on,... to concentrate wines! A strange climate, as we had never seen it before: summer instead of spring, rather fresh July, an early autumn which gives way in the middle of September to the return of summer temperatures. We get confused about it, but the vine remains a Mediterranean plant. This 2011 is great pleasure to see – and even more to taste, it is round and full of warmth, with well built tannin, for a rather long ageing. This quality series is not only a trilogy, but even a Tetralogy: 2008 – 2009 – 2010 and now 2011. Bronze Medal at the Contest of Great Wines of France Mâcon
